By Auction £170,000 Freehold

About The Property

Being sold by auction on 26th March in conjunction with Clive Emson Auctioneers, a charming end of terrace stone cottage of character, believed to date from circa 1850, together with ample parking, garage and a large rear garden. The accommodation consists of a large sitting room with open fireplace, dining room, kitchen, cloakroom, three bedrooms and bathroom. There are night storage and panel heaters as well as double glazed upvc windows. There is space for further garaging and potential to open the garden up further. The property is approached over a gravel driveway with parking for a number of vehicles leading to a detached concrete sectional garage. Rear pedestrian access to the rear garden which has a paved and concrete patio with steps up to the large rear garden which is full of shrubs and trees. There is a pedestrian right of way for the neighbour at the rear.

Mains water and electricity are connected to the property. Septic tank drainage (shared between three cottages).

Situated in a semi rural location within a mile of the Budgens/Tinkerbell service station, 3 miles from Wilton and 5 miles from Salisbury with mainline station to Waterloo. This is a great opportunity for a buyer to modernise and alter to create a fabulous family home.

Auction Guide Price – £170,000 - £190,000 Plus fees
