Phillimore Place, W8

This refurbished three bedroom property that is finished to the highest of standards is on one of Kensington's most prestigious streets and offers fantastic living space throughout. With double height ceilings, a large private garden and an expansive reception room this property is ideal for a family or professional couple.

Entered through the ground floor the hallway opens up to the double reception room with high ceilings, fantastic natural light and parquet flooring throughout. The semi open plan kitchen offers integrated appliances throughout with all the mod-cons one could ask for. At the rear of the property is a large private garden.

Downstairs the master suite offers an escape. With a spacious walk in wardrobe, seating area, large bedroom area and unique wetroom this bedroom is the pinnacle of the property. Two further bedrooms are found to the rear with access out into the garden, both offering fitted storage whilst the second bedroom also offers an ensuite. A family bathroom can also be found on this floor along with additional storage space.

Phillimore Place is located on Phillimore Estate. Moments from Holland Park and the amenities found on Kensington High Street.
