GUIDE PRICE: £325,000 - £375,000

Set within the heart of the highly desirable and picturesque village of Horndon-on-the-Hill, this extended three bedroom terraced family home delivers space, potential and that all-important village lifestyle buyers are always searching for.

The property welcomes you with an entrance porch leading into an inviting hallway. The ground floor unfolds into a lovely L-shaped lounge/diner — a brilliantly versatile space perfect for cosy nights in, lively dinner parties or simply stretching out and enjoying the room to breathe. To the rear, the extended kitchen offers excellent proportions and exciting scope for a stylish redesign. Whether you're dreaming of shaker cabinetry, a statement island or bi-fold doors to the garden, this is your chance to make it happen.

Upstairs, the first floor hosts three well-sized bedrooms and a shower room, all arranged off a central landing. Each room offers comfortable dimensions, ideal for growing families, visiting guests or the ever-important home office setup.

Outside, the property continues to impress with a nice-sized rear garden — ready for summer barbecues, children's adventures or a landscaping glow-up. A garage located in a block to the rear adds valuable storage and practicality.

Horndon-on-the-Hill itself needs little introduction. Known for its village charm, strong community feel and scenic surroundings, it remains one of the most sought-after addresses locally. Think countryside walks, traditional village appeal and a lifestyle that feels a world away from the everyday rush, yet within easy reach of amenities and transport links.

In short, this is more than just a house — it's a home with potential, personality and the opportunity to truly make it your own.
