“

We've both thoroughly loved living here—tucked away in a peaceful, private close, it's incredibly quiet yet just a short walk to the station and town. The house has been perfect for hosting, with a sunny south-facing garden, and the friendly community really makes it special

Positioned in one of Redhill's most desirable residential pockets, this exceptional three-bedroom semi-detached home offers a rare blend of classical design and modern living, just a ten-minute walk from Redhill station with direct links into London. Built in 2013 in an attractive mock Georgian style, the property stands apart from typical new builds, with considered architecture, a sharp white rendered façade, traditional sash windows and elegant plantation shutters throughout.

Over the past three years, the current owners have meticulously renovated and upgraded the house to a high standard, creating a home that is both stylish and practical. The ground floor is arranged with a bright and well-appointed kitchen/diner at the front, ideal for everyday living and entertaining, while to the rear a generous living room opens directly onto the garden.

Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from a cleverly designed en suite shower room, discreetly concealed behind fitted wardrobe doors, alongside a further double bedroom and a versatile third room suited to a nursery, study or guest space. A modern family bathroom completes the first floor.

A real highlight is the high-quality garden office, finished with bifolding doors and offering an excellent work-from-home environment, while also incorporating a king-sized Murphy bed and incinerator toilet, making it equally suitable as a guest suite.

Externally, the property features a double driveway and sits on the border of Reigate, providing easy access to green open spaces, scenic walks, well-regarded schools and a wide selection of restaurants and bars.

A beautifully presented, turn-key home in a prime location, offering both convenience and lifestyle appeal.
