The Stone Family

Contemporary design, considered living and a south-facing garden, moments from Hove Station.

Set within one of central Hove's desirable mews settings, this beautifully reimagined four bedroom home offers a considered balance of contemporary design, effortless living and everyday convenience. With Hove Station just a short stroll away, alongside independent cafés, neighbourhood restaurants, boutiques and the seafront, it's a home that puts the best of Hove within easy reach.

Inside, the feel is immediate. Beautifully decorated throughout, the interiors bring together a cohesive palette, bespoke detailing and a sense of space that makes the home feel both refined and inviting. The vendors have invested extensively in the property, from behind-the-scenes upgrades to carefully selected finishes, creating a turnkey home where the hard work has already been done.

The ground floor is centred around an open plan kitchen, living and dining space, designed around the way we live today. A sleek contemporary kitchen, complete with premium appliances and generous storage, sits alongside relaxed living and dining areas, making it equally suited to quiet evenings at home or a table full of friends. Wood flooring, ceramic tiling, bespoke fitted storage and made-to-measure electric blinds bring a thoughtful finish, while a statement staircase runner adds a distinctive touch. A ground floor WC completes the space.

At the rear, the glazed extension is a real highlight. Glass roof panels draw natural light deep into the room, while bi-fold doors open onto the garden, creating an easy transition between inside and out. The space lends itself perfectly to relaxed weekends, long lunches and evenings spent entertaining, with the garden providing a natural backdrop throughout the seasons.

The private south facing garden has been designed with entertaining and low-maintenance living in mind. A combination of terrace and patio areas provides space to dine outdoors, stretch out in the sun or host friends, with the garden feeling like a natural extension of the home's living space. Side access and additional storage are practical additions, without compromising the overall feel.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom offers a welcome retreat, complete with fitted wardrobes and an en-suite shower room. A further double bedroom and a beautifully finished family bathroom sit alongside, while the top floor provides two additional bedrooms with the flexibility to adapt as life changes. Whether for children, guests or working from home, the options are there, with one room currently arranged as a walk-in wardrobe that could equally become a nursery, dressing room or dedicated office.

And then there's the everyday practicality. Driveway parking for two vehicles is a genuine luxury in this central setting, while the station, seafront and Hove's much-loved local spots are all within easy reach. A home designed for modern living, where thoughtful interiors, light-filled spaces and a sun-soaked garden come together in a location that makes everyday life feel that little bit easier.
