A parcel of land situated along a country lane on the outskirts of Lifton, offering a peaceful haven of wildlife and mature trees.

The land has gated vehicular access via a wooden 5 bar gate with a sloping driveway. There is a strong natural tree and hedgerow border providing privacy and offers a sheltered location with some pleasant views. There is a range of plants, shrubbery and trees throughout the land offering great variety. There is a greenhouse however it is in need of some repair.

The land is approx 1/3 acre and was used for growing in the past and has a useful storage shed. Currently the land is mainly laid to grass and may suit buyers looking for a slice of countryside and a hideaway for the day!
