

Percival Road, Enfield

Under Offer (SSTC)
£450,000 (Freehold)

A characterful two-bedroom period home with a through lounge, first-floor bathroom and a west-facing garden, offering scope to make your own.

Set on a sought-after road, this freehold two-bedroom period-style home combines character features with scope for personalisation. With a through lounge, first-floor bathroom, and a westerly facing garden, it makes an appealing choice for first-time buyers and downsizers alike.

The ground floor offers a bright and spacious lounge with sash windows to front and rear, feature fireplace, and useful understairs storage, flowing through to a fitted kitchen with integrated oven and hob. A lean-to provides additional storage and utility space.

Upstairs, two well-sized bedrooms are served by a family bathroom complete with underfloor heating, mains-fed shower, and cupboard housing a modern 'Vaillant' boiler.

The rear garden enjoys a westerly aspect, featuring lawn, patio, and a timber shed, while the frontage is neatly paved with shrub borders. Further benefits include gas central heating, original sash windows, and potential for extension (STPP).

Percival Road is well located within 0.6 miles of Bush Hill Park Station for rail links into central London, while Enfield Town's shops, restaurants, and green spaces are all close by. The property falls under Enfield Council (Band D) and is connected to all mains services. Broadband is available locally, and residents benefit from good road access to the A10 and M25.
