Sandwich

A charming Grade II Listed Victorian terraced cottage, close to the town centre, with secluded rear garden and a wealth of character features.

Situation

Located within the Sandwich conservation area, the town centre shops are 5 minutes walk away and this picturesque town benefits from a good selection of useful amenities with plenty of shops pubs and restaurants with well regarded primary and secondary schools and fast Javelin trains to London from the nearby railway station. Canterbury is 13 Miles, Deal is 6 miles. Royal Cinque Ports and Royal St. George's championship golf links along the nearby Sandwich coastline are of international renown.

The Property

Set within a terrace of like styled cottages this Grade II Listed Victorian home oozes charm and character and benefits from a courtyard garden as well as a separate secluded garden. The front door opens into a welcoming sitting room, with exposed brick wall and focal point fireplace. Beyond lies the delightful dining room, with wood burning stove and tiled flooring which extends into the rear kitchen, fitted with a modest range of units under a granite worktop. To the first floor are two double bedrooms and a light modern bathroom with three piece matching white suite. This charming cottage is chain free and gas centrally heated.

Outside

Permit parking is available in both on street bays and in the nearby Gazen Salts car park. A pretty courtyard area lies to the rear elevation and is accessed via a stable door in the kitchen whilst a pathway, shared with one direct neighbour, leads to a secluded lawned garden, a delightful south facing space with walled boundaries, timber garden shed and wildlife pond.
