Looking for a home that's practical, modern, and easy to live in? This three-bedroom mid-terrace on Portsea Road might just tick all the right boxes

Step inside and you're welcomed by a no-nonsense entrance hallway—compact, functional, and straight to the point (no wasted space here!). Head through to the right and you'll find a cosy lounge, perfect for relaxing after a long day, complete with a handy built-in cupboard (because you can never have too much storage... trust us).

The real star of the show? The full-width kitchen/diner stretching across the back of the house. This is where modern living meets everyday practicality. With integrated appliances, including an oven and microwave, plus a combi boiler neatly tucked away in a cupboard, everything has its place. The sleek tiled flooring adds a stylish touch, while the space itself is ideal for everything from midweek dinners to weekend catch-ups.

Step outside and you'll find a fully paved, low-maintenance garden—meaning more time enjoying, less time mowing. There's also access to a garage, giving you that extra bit of flexibility for storage, hobbies, or parking.

Upstairs, you've got three well-proportioned bedrooms, perfect for a growing family, working from home, or even that long-awaited dressing room. The landing includes a storage cupboard (always a win), and the loft is already insulated—one less thing to think about.

All in all, this is a home that keeps things simple, smart, and ready for you to move straight in.

Tilbury offers a practical and well-connected location that continues to attract buyers looking for value within easy reach of London. Positioned along the River Thames, Tilbury benefits from strong transport links, including Tilbury Town station with direct services into London Fenchurch Street, making it ideal for commuters. The area also provides convenient access to the A13 and Dartford Crossing, connecting you to surrounding towns and cities. Locally, you'll find a range of everyday amenities, including shops, supermarkets, schools, and leisure facilities, while nearby Grays offers a wider selection of retail and dining options. With ongoing regeneration in the wider Thames Gateway area and its affordability compared to neighbouring locations, Tilbury is becoming an increasingly popular choice for first-time buyers, families, and investors alike
