The accommodation opens into an entrance hall with stairs leading to the first floor and access to a spacious through sitting and dining room. Stretching the full depth of the house, this is a bright and versatile living space featuring period fireplaces, high ceilings and large sash windows to the front and rear. Beyond sits the fitted kitchen, offering a good range of units and work surfaces, which in turn leads through to a useful utility room with WC and access to the rear courtyard.

To the first floor are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, both offering excellent space for furniture. The principal bedroom spans the full width of the property, while the second overlooks the rear courtyard. Completing the accommodation is a generously sized bathroom fitted with both a bath and separate shower.

Outside, the property benefits from an enclosed rear courtyard providing a low-maintenance outdoor seating area with gated rear access. Residents' permit parking is available on the street, and the property's enviable city centre position places York's renowned restaurants, cafés, independent shops and riverside walks all within easy reach. York Railway Station is also within comfortable walking distance, making this an ideal home for commuters as well as those seeking the convenience of city living.
