The accommodation is arranged predominantly on the ground floor and begins with a welcoming entrance hall. The main reception room is particularly generous, providing a comfortable and naturally light living space, while a separate dining room sits beyond and offers useful additional reception space.

The kitchen is well arranged with a good range of cupboard and worktop space. There are two principal bedrooms on the ground floor, together with a further study/bedroom three offering excellent flexibility as a guest room, home office or hobby space. A neatly presented bathroom completes the main accommodation.

A staircase rises to a substantial loft room, providing an excellent additional area for storage, hobbies or occasional use, with restricted head height to parts.

Externally, the property benefits from an easy-to-maintain rear garden, offering a pleasant space for relaxing or entertaining. A garage and driveway provide off-street parking and useful additional storage.

Springfield Road is conveniently positioned within the sought-after village of Rowde, which offers a range of local amenities, countryside walks and a strong community feel, while Devizes is only a short distance away for a wider selection of shops and everyday facilities.

Situation
Rowde is a popular Wiltshire village on the edge of the market town of Devizes, which provides a village shop, an excellent public house/restaurant called The George and Dragon specialising in Seafood, a primary school and St Matthews church. There is a bus stop just around the corner with good services back into town. Devizes town centre is only a few minutes away by car and offers a comprehensive range of shopping, transport and leisure facilities including a swimming pool, schools for all ages, a theatre, museum and thriving weekly market.
