Stunning coastal home positioned within a desirable village setting, this impressive detached four-bedroom family home offers a rare opportunity to enjoy peaceful rural surroundings while remaining conveniently close to the popular market town of Ulverston and the amenities of Barrow-in-Furness. Occupying a substantial plot with a sweeping horseshoe driveway and mature frontage, the property enjoys breathtaking uninterrupted views across Morecambe Bay to the front, while the enclosed rear garden backs onto open fields and countryside, creating a truly special setting. The home offers spacious, versatile accommodation arranged over two floors, with naturally bright open-plan living areas, flexible bedroom space and excellent storage - ideal for modern family living, multi-generational needs, or those seeking a coastal lifestyle retreat and boasts excellent kerb appeal, approached via a horseshoe driveway providing extensive off-road parking. Mature planting and a feature tree frame the front garden, which enjoys stunning panoramic sea views. Complete with gas central heating system and uPVC double glazing.
