The benefit of living on this Island is that you are never too far away from our wonderful coastline and beaches. This is certainly the case for this well presented detached bungalow situated in the hugely popular coastal village of Seaview. It sits within a peaceful cul-de-sac which is part of 'Seaview Heights', a modern collective of homes largely built throughout the 1970s. As well as being 10 minutes or so walk from the stunning beaches at Seagrove Bay & Priory Bay you will also be equally close to the village centres of Seaview and Nettlestone. Seaview is renowned for its sailing club and related social events & regattas throughout the season attracting the sailing fraternity from far and wide. There is a regular bus service passing through the village and The Coastal Path offers a lovely waterside walk to neighbouring towns and villages. This recently modernised interior of this single floor living layout includes a sizeable twin aspect lounge plus a separate kitchen/diner perfectly meeting modern day living requirements. There are three well proportioned bedrooms and a recently fitted bathroom for all to use. The level gardens are neatly laid to lawn with the larger to the rear of the bungalow which is home to a handy painted wooden workshop. The garage with new powered door, offers secure parking plus driveway parking for up to three vehicles. Inland away from the beaches, the village is surrounded by sprawling countryside which you can easily navigate via an extensive network of footpaths and bridleways to explore this beautiful Island.
