Offering light-filled and versatile accommodation arranged over multiple levels, the property is well suited to a range of buyers, whether as a permanent residence, second home or holiday retreat.

Interior

The property is entered via a covered porch into a welcoming reception hall with wood flooring, understairs storage and stairs rising to the upper floors. To the rear, the kitchen/dining room forms a sociable hub of the home, fitted with a range of units and offering a pleasant outlook over the garden, with sliding doors providing direct access outside.

On the upper levels, the accommodation is arranged to make the most of the views and natural light. The sitting room is a particular feature, enjoying far-reaching views across the Solent and opening onto a balcony via sliding patio doors—an ideal spot to sit and take in the fabulous Solent view!

There are three bedrooms in total, offering flexibility for family living or guest accommodation. Two bedrooms enjoy views over the rear garden, while another could be used as an additional reception room, benefiting from impressive sea views. The top floor bedroom is a generous space, originally designed as two rooms, with potential to reinstate if required.

The property is served by a separate shower room and a family bathroom, providing convenience across the different levels.

Exterior

To the front of the property, there is driveway parking for two cars along with an integral garage, offering useful storage or secure parking.

The rear garden is enclosed and enjoys a southerly aspect, with a lawned area bordered by mature trees and shrubs, creating a private and sheltered outdoor space. A small patio area sits directly off the kitchen, ideal for outdoor dining and everyday use.

Cowes

Cowes is rich in nautical heritage and an international mecca for sailing, culminating in Cowes Week held in August each year. It has quick access to Southampton via the more modern Red Jet as well as many marinas and sailing clubs dotted along the waterfront.

Within the High Street there are two supermarkets, many boutique shops, pubs and eateries. Historical Northwood House & Park hosts weddings, fairs, concerts and conferences with outside space to enjoy walks. The chain ferry links Cowes to East Cowes where you can find the Red Funnel car and passenger ferry to the mainland.
