Wrap-around garden and driveway

A paved driveway provides excellent off road parking, with an up and over door opening into the garage. An opening leads into the front garden with a door into the porch and living room. The front garden is primarily laid to lawn with a patio area off the French doors from the living room. Raised decking lays host to a covered outdoor entertaining area with power and lighting, which is currently utilised as a bar. To the rear the garden continues with an iron gate separating the spaces, the rear garden is again laid to lawn with gravelled areas and mature shrubbery adorning the space. Doors open from the kitchen.
