Situated on this quiet residential street in the ever-popular Queensgate area of Burnley, this deceptively spacious three-bedroom property is now ready to become the perfect family home, or a welcomed addition to any investor's portfolio.

Floor Plans

You first enter into the convenient hallway - access to all ground floor accommodation. To the front, you find a cosy reception room, which could be used as a lounge or dining room.

Following the hallway, you are welcomed into a bright and ample-sized second reception room with convenient understairs storage. This generously sized room has original characteristics such as the fireplace, which can be utilised for the installation of a fire to make the room homely and cosy on evenings. This room can be used to host guests or even to retreat in privacy.

The property is well equipped modern galley kitchen extension that allows light to flood into the room. This kitchen has all the attributes to make this room the heart of the home. The kitchen will fit all appliances required with ease, and you will still have plenty of space to manoeuvre around, making cooking for the family that much easier.

Following the stairs to the first floor, you find three bright bedrooms - the front of which offers unrestricted views and a spacious room - and a modern three-piece bathroom with an additional electric shower overbath.

Externally, there is a private rear yard and a hedged front courtyard.

Additional benefits include uPVC Double Glazing and Gas Fired Central Heating throughout.
