Mariners Way

Cambridge,
CB4 1ZA

A beautifully presented and proportioned three-bedroom second floor apartment set within a select gated waterside development and well tended communal gardens. The property further benefits from a garage and covered balcony, all perfectly positioned to enjoy the activity, wildlife and natural beauty of the the River Cam and Midsummer Common. Offered with no onward chain.

LOCATION

The Eights Marina enjoys a superb position alongside the River Cam and the open green expanse of Midsummer Common, offering an idyllic waterside setting within the desirable north Cambridge district of Chesterton. The area provides an excellent range of local amenities, including independent shops, cafes, pubs, and convenient everyday services. The location allows effortless access to Cambridge City Centre, either via the picturesque riverside foot and cycle path or by frequent bus services. It is also ideally placed for key employment hubs such as the Cambridge Science Park, Business Park, and Addenbrooke's Hospital/Biomedical Campus. For commuters, the nearby A14 links easily to the A1 and the North, while the M11 provides a direct route to Stansted Airport and London to the South. Cambridge's mainline railway station offers fast and regular services, including connections to Stansted Airport in around 30 minutes and London King's Cross in approximately 45 minutes. This combination of scenic riverside living, excellent local amenities, and outstanding transport links makes The Eights Marina an exceptionally well-connected and sought-after location.
