

Property Location Boscombe Spa, Bournemouth

Boscombe Spa is one of Bournemouth's established coastal residential and leisure areas, situated immediately east of Bournemouth town centre. The area combines a traditional Victorian seaside character with a lively modern coastal atmosphere and is particularly attractive because of its proximity to the beach, pier and local amenities. Historically, Boscombe developed from a small settlement into a fashionable seaside resort during the Victorian period. The name Boscombe Spa relates to the area's original aspirations as a spa resort, following the discovery of a mineral spring near the foot of Boscombe Chine. Michelgrove Road sits within the wider Boscombe Spa/Boscombe West area, an established coastal neighbourhood with a mixture of period properties, purpose-built apartments and more recent residential development.
