2 Threadneedle Street is situated in the picturesque village of Culmstock and is a charming two-double bedroom cottage, tucked away with a cottage style garden, views to the Church and within close proximity to the village centre and fabulous countryside walks.

The property benefits from a single garage and is offered to the market with NO ONWARD CHAIN. The homely and well-balanced accommodation which is arranged over two floors and briefly comprises a generous entrance hallway with stairs rising to the first floor. The main sitting room boasts a central fireplace with shelving either side whilst deep windowsills create a cottage and inviting feel. An archway opens to the adjoining second reception room which enjoys plenty of space for everyday furnishings. The newly installed kitchen gives a modern twist, providing a range of matching wall and base units with contrasting worktops and space for everyday kitchen appliances. From the kitchen there is a cleverly designed conservatory which currently doubles up as a dining room. Completing the ground floor is an understairs wet room.

To the first floor there are two double bedrooms serviced by the family bathroom offering a four-piece white suite. There is potential to extend into the roof space (subject to the necessary planning consents).

Externally the property benefits from a single attached garage (left hand side) on the north elevation, which is one of two and is connected to power and is approached via a shared driveway. Side gated access leads to a pretty cottage style courtyard garden with a further path leading to the rear level garden which is a haven for wildlife and enjoys a private aspect, perfect for any keen gardener. Furthermore, there is a useful outbuilding currently used as a utility/cloakroom.

Affording some lovely features and decorated throughout in soft, neutral tones, this cottage benefits from uPVC double glazing and oil-fired central heating.
