A fantastic opportunity to own this three double bedroom detached bungalow which is set in a highly desirable location at Budock Water on the outskirts of Falmouth.

This fine bungalow has accommodation in brief comprising; entrance hallway, spacious lounge/dining room, kitchen/dining area with inset Velux windows, three double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and a luxury well appointed bathroom suite in white. Outside the property there are beautifully maintained and landscaped gardens with paved patio, a detached garage and off road parking facilities on the driveway.

The village of Budock itself offers a host of local amenities including village shop, historic church, the Trelowarren Arms public house, restaurant and playing field with children's play area. The village is situated on a local bus route which runs to and from the harbourside town of Falmouth which is approximately two miles distant and offers a wider range of facilities and amenities along with local junior and senior schools.
