Summary Continued

The kitchen is a high end Howdens kitchen with extensive range of integrated appliances to remain. There is also a separate lounge, further study / office, large downstairs W.C. and walk in utility cupboard.

All three bedrooms upstairs are double sized and there is also an additional walk in closet area together with ensuite shower room and panelling to the main bedroom. Also upstairs is a good sized family bathroom.

The fully southerly facing landscaped walled garden is another major feature of the property which is low maintenance and includes raised borders, several eating areas and covered areas with a glass veranda. There are also garden lights and outside electric points. A summerhouse with lights and electric points which would equally make a lovely garden office. There are two allocated off street car parking spaces and nearby guest visitors car parking.

All in all, a highly impressive top specification conversion of the former St Clements Victorian hospital boiler house by Landswood builders and there are many selling features to this executive property not least its exclusive location.

Within Belgrove Place is access to St Clements Golf course which is open to separate membership and there are delightful woodland walks. A bus stop at the entrance to Belgrove Place leads into Ipswich town centre and Ipswich Hospital is only a 10 minute walk away. Rushmere Heath and golf course are also only approximately 10 minutes away.
