Battens Chapel Cottage

Lambourn Woodlands, Hungerford, Berkshire, RG17 7TN

Guide £795,000

A stunning converted chapel that dates back to 1850, with wonderful period features and set within beautiful grounds.

Description

The property has been updated, extended and significantly improved by the current owners. The reception hall leads to the spacious sitting room with a vaulted ceiling, Gothic arch and stained glass windows. There is also a Clearview woodburner in a bespoke Bath stone fireplace. The kitchen/breakfast room has a Rayburn and natural slate floor with underfloor heating. There are two bedrooms on the ground floor. On the first floor, which is accessed by a wrought iron spiral staircase, there is the master bedroom, a bathroom and a large mezzanine/study area which could be used as an additional sitting room or bedroom. Outside there are beautiful gardens, a driveway for parking together and an oak-framed barn with good storage and three parking bays. This would make an ideal annexe or home office, subject to the usual consents. There is also a very well kept paddock. Whilst the property is within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, it should be noted that it is NOT A LISTED BUILDING. A viewing is strongly advised to appreciate the overall quality and potential of this property.

Lambourn Woodlands

Lambourn Woodlands is a hamlet approximately 7 miles from Hungerford. The historic market town of Hungerford has a range of local shops and is renowned as an antiques centre. It is bordered by Freemans Marsh and Portdown Common with the Kennet & Avon canal flowing through. The town has a doctors surgery, public library, two supermarkets, a primary school, secondary school and also a nursery school rated outstanding by Ofsted. There are also pubs, restaurants and numerous leisure activities and clubs. The M4 motorway can be joined at junctions 14 or 15 and there is a rail service from the town to Newbury, Reading, London (Paddington) and the West Country.

Directions

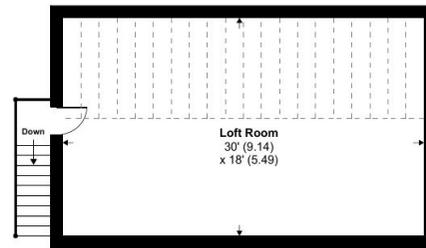

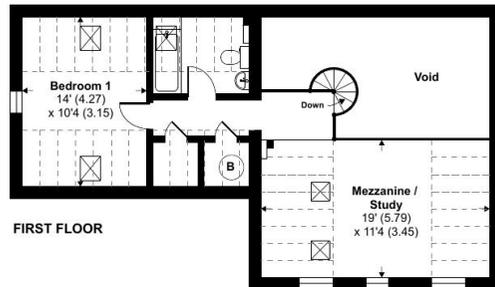

From our office turn right down the High Street, right at The Bear Hotel and at the second roundabout turn left signposted M4. Continue ahead under the motorway and take the first left turn signposted Lambourn. Continue on the B4000 to Lambourn Woodlands, pass the right hand turn to Lambourn and the property will be found along on the right hand side.
