Orchard House is an impressive individually designed detached family home, set within beautifully established grounds of around 0.4 of an acre in the well-placed village of Hengrave, just three miles from Bury St Edmunds and convenient for the A14.

Offering around 1,800 sq.ft of well-proportioned accommodation, the house is ideal for family life, with a large dual-aspect sitting room with wood burner, generous dining room, study/bedroom five, kitchen/breakfast room and useful utility/boot room. Upstairs are four double bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with refitted en suite, plus a family bathroom.

Outside, the wide driveway, double garage, EV charging point, solar panels and private rear gardens with terrace, orchard, lawns and mature planting make this a particularly appealing and practical family home.
