Have you always wanted to live in the centre of Lymm? would you like to live alongside the Bridgewater Canal? Imagine sitting on your balcony watching the boats and wildlife go by. This property supplies all of this along with two parking spaces. The property comprises a hallway, Master bedroom with access to a small garden and the towpath, a further bedroom and bathroom. A staircase gives access to the second floor with glazed divider between stairs and modern kitchen which is open to the dining/living area and balcony. On the second floor there is a further living area or bedroom. This truly is a great position with fabulous views up and down the canal.
