49 Potter Hill, Pickering YO18 8AD

This beautifully renovated double-fronted Victorian semi-detached combines historic charm with contemporary family living, all within an easy walk of the bustling town centre. Extending to 1720 square feet internally, the property has been skilfully and sympathetically upgraded in recent years. The layout features a cosy front lounge and an excellent open-plan living and dining kitchen, perfect for modern family life, alongside a convenient utility room. Across the upper floors are four well-proportioned bedrooms, providing ample space. A major highlight is the superb loft conversion, which creates a bright and private bedroom suite complete with a stylish en-suite bathroom. Situated in a highly popular and well-served market town, this home offers the ideal blend of period elegance and turn-key convenience.

Location

The property occupies an elevated position with steps upto a terraced area allowing space to sit out where sun comes round from the south and west as the day goes on. To the rear lies a private full width but shallow courtyard space.

Pickering is an attractive market town on the edge of the beautiful North York Moors National Park and 18 miles from the Heritage Coast. There is a wealth of pubs, eateries individual shops and all the other amenities expected in a market town; including the market itself held every Monday. The iconic North Yorkshire Moors Steam Railway is based in Pickering with some services to Whitby - the famous seaside town from where Captain Cook set sail in the endeavour in the 1700s. There is a wonderful Norman castle in Pickering owned by English Heritage and the surrounding countryside is a haven for wildlife and walkers.
