Dovecote

This distinctive terraced house presents an exciting opportunity for buyers seeking a project and the chance to create a truly individual home. The accommodation begins with an entrance hall leading to the main landing, where you'll find a spacious lounge/diner with an opening into the kitchen, creating an ideal layout for modern living. This level also accommodates a double bedroom, a three-piece bathroom, and useful storage. Stairs from the lounge/diner descend to the ground floor, where the principal bedroom benefits from an ensuite shower room. A bright and airy conservatory overlooks and leads out to the rear garden, providing a pleasant additional reception space with views across the outside area. Externally, the property enjoys a generous courtyard-style garden with rear access, offering excellent potential for landscaping. A standout feature is the presence of two integral garages, complemented by two integral external storage cupboards, providing an abundance of storage and versatility. Further benefits include double glazing and electric heating. Requiring comprehensive refurbishment throughout, this unusual home offers a fantastic opportunity to modernise and tailor the accommodation to individual tastes and requirements.

Situated on Dovecote in Shoeburyness, the property falls within the catchment areas for Friars Primary School and Nursery and Shoeburyness High School. Local amenities, parks, bus links, and Shoeburyness Train Station are all close by, with the station famously guaranteeing a seat on services travelling to London.
