Rosyth is located on the Firth of Forth, some three miles south of the centre of Dunfermline. Within Rosyth's main thoroughfare, there is a good selection of shops for everyday requirements, including a Tesco supermarket and a Sainsbury's local.

This is an excellent commuter base for those travelling north and south of the Forth Bridges by road or rail, located a mile from the new Queensferry crossing, which gives an ease of transport for the commuter. The Ferry toll park and ride facility at Inverkeithing provides a stress-free and economical way of commuting to Edinburgh and the airport, whilst the train station offers direct trains to Aberdeen and London. All of which are under two miles from the property.

Schooling of good repute can be found for Primary education in Rosyth and further secondary education in nearby Dunfermline. Situated by the Firth of Forth, there is an abundance of picturesque villages and ample walking routes for dogs along the coast. There are many employment opportunities in the town with major employers based locally and with plans underway to develop the waterfront, Rosyth has a bright future.
