P I N E W O O D

This delightful two-bedroom, one-bathroom mid-terraced house combines traditional charm with modern comforts, offering a flexible layout perfect for contemporary living. The inviting reception room features a classic fireplace, exposed beams, and large windows that bathe the space in natural light. A well-equipped kitchen showcases ample storage, integrated appliances, and vintage accents, creating a warm, homely atmosphere - ideal for both daily life and entertaining. The two bedrooms are bright and cosy, each benefiting from generous built-in storage and large windows overlooking mature greenery, providing tranquil retreats for rest and relaxation. The stylish shower room is finished with modern fixtures, a walk-in shower, and decorative tile accents, ensuring a fresh, inviting space.

Outside, the property boasts a charming stone façade with a unique blue door, adding character and kerb appeal. The beautifully landscaped front garden welcomes you with lush greenery and vibrant flowers, while the spacious rear garden, bordered by well-maintained fencing and mature shrubs, offers a private oasis for outdoor dining, gardening, or family gatherings. An enclosed porch provides practical outdoor access and extra storage, and off-road parking adds convenience and peace of mind. This home is perfect for those seeking a blend of period character and modern living - book your viewing today to experience all it has to offer.
