THE PROPERTY

'The Fitzroy' occupies a prominent position on Falmouth's seafront, along which level walks lead past Castle Beach to Pendennis Point in one direction, and to Gyllyngvase Beach, Queen Mary Gardens and Swanpool in the other. The development provides an unrivalled standard of 'five star' living with attractively landscaped, sea-facing gardens, superb communal rooms including residents lounge, spacious lifts, on-site manager, maintenance support and parking, to the rear, which is available if required on a 'waiting list' basis.

Number 34 is situated on the top floor with a large landing leading onto a covered rear walkway which leads to just one other property. This covered walkway provides an additional outside 'sitting area' which enjoys an elevated outlook and the afternoon and evening sun.

Under-floor heating throughout is complemented by an air circulatory system, many windows are full height, the kitchen includes all integrated appliances, bathrooms feature high quality white sanitary wear, there is a utility 'closet', an extremely well proportioned open-plan living room opens directly onto a broad balcony.

A current annual maintenance charge of c. £7,500 covers all aspects of communal maintenance, as well as the water charge and block insurance etc. Maintenance support inside the apartment can be provided via the on-site manager, at cost, if assistance is required.

THE ACCOMMODATION COMPRISES

Number 34 is accessed from the fifth floor landing, off which a covered walkway which leads to just one other apartment.
