Skelwith Apartment forms part of Neaum Crag House, originally built around 1890/1900 and was converted and extended in early 1990 and now consists of 4 units. Located just a short distance from beautiful Loughrigg Tarn, Neaum Crag has proved to be a very popular, highly regarded and wonderfully relaxing location ever since its conception in the 1980's. Now well established, this unique and peaceful site is full of interest and extends to something in the region of 18 acres (not measured) and includes unobtrusive on-site leisure facilities which incorporate not only a lovely indoor swimming pool but also a sauna, games area and laundry - perfect for all the family whatever the weather.

The woodland also attracts a spectacular array of wildlife including red squirrels, deer and a wonderful variety of birds. There is much to experience by simply strolling around Neaum Crag, but there are also an amazing selection walks to enjoy directly from the site. Whether you wish to target the high fells, secluded tarns or a range of highly regarded cafes and traditional Lakeland Inns, all are on hand.

The accommodation is neatly presented and comprises sitting room featuring a contemporary style wood burning stove and American Oak Amtico flooring which flows through an archway to the modern kitchen. Fitted with a range of wall and base units, stainless steel sink and Neff integrated appliances including; hob, oven and cooker hood, microwave and slimline dishwasher. There are two double bedrooms and a three piece bathroom. The property enjoys its own private terrace, just perfect for a morning coffee or a glass of something cool as the sun goes down.

The apartment is offered furnished as seen if so desired.
