Guide Price

Cossington Road

This charming and distinctive second floor flat offers bright accommodation throughout, alongside the rare benefit of exclusive roof access. The property comprises a spacious lounge/diner with access onto a private balcony enjoying sea glimpses, while a unique staircase rises from the lounge to the roof, which boasts stunning elevated views including views across the sea. This is the only flat within the building with direct roof access, creating a truly special feature. The property also offers a fitted kitchen, a dual aspect double bedroom filled with natural light, and a four-piece bathroom. Externally, residents benefit from communal access to a West-facing garden and one allocated off-street parking space to the front. Further benefits include part double glazing and gas central heating.

Situated on Cossington Road in Westcliff-on-Sea, the property is within easy reach of London Road, bus links, and Westcliff Train Station, making it ideal for commuters. Hamlet Court Road is just minutes away for a wide range of amenities, cafés, and restaurants, while the seafront and local theatres are also close by.
