Local Information Nettlestead

Nettlestead is a desirable semi-rural location set within the picturesque Medway Valley, surrounded by open countryside and offering a peaceful setting while remaining well placed for access to nearby towns and villages. The area is popular with those looking to enjoy a country lifestyle without feeling too far removed from everyday conveniences.

Located between the neighbouring villages of Watlington and Yalding, residents have easy access to a range of local amenities including village shops, public houses, primary schools and mainline railway stations, with regular services to London. The county town of Maidstone is also within convenient, offering an extensive choice of shopping, leisure and educational facilities.

The surrounding area is well known for its beautiful countryside, riverside walks and network of public footpaths, making it ideal for those who enjoy the outdoors. Nettlestead is also well placed for a selection of highly regarded state and independent schools, making it an attractive location for families, commuters and anyone seeking a quieter way of life.
