Tucked away in a popular residential cul-de-sac, this two-bedroom terraced home offers a fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors. While the property requires some modernisation, it provides a solid canvas for those looking to put their own stamp on a home in a highly sought-after Chertsey location. Offered for sale with no onward chain, this property ensures a straightforward transition for any prospective buyer. The ground floor features a practical kitchen situated at the front of the house, while the rear opens up into an expansive living and dining area. This generous space serves as the heart of the home, leading directly out to the garden and providing plenty of room for both relaxation and entertaining. For comfort and efficiency, the home is equipped with gas central heating and double-glazed windows throughout. Moving upstairs, the bedrooms are well-proportioned and designed with storage in mind. The primary bedroom features large built-in wardrobes, while the second bedroom includes its own built-in storage alongside a useful recess perfect for additional furniture or a home office setup. Residents will also benefit from a loft space, providing excellent additional storage. The outdoor space is a particular highlight, featuring a pretty rear garden that combines a decked area for al-fresco dining with a well-maintained lawn. The garden is framed by a pleasant backdrop of mature trees, offering a sense of privacy and greenery rarely found in such a central location. Gated rear access adds further convenience, while the front of the property provides dedicated allocated parking. Situated on a no-through road, the property enjoys a prime position near Chertsey town centre and its local amenities. It is ideally placed for commuters and families alike, with close proximity to Staines-upon-Thames, Thorpe Park, and St Peter's Hospital. This home perfectly balances the safety of a residential cul-de-sac with easy access to the vibrant surrounding area. EPC Rating C.
