Occupying a superb plot of approximately 0.4 acres in the heart of Feering, Gore Pit Cottage is a charming, detached family home believed to date back to the 1920s. Retaining original Crittall windows and a wealth of character features, the property offers versatile accommodation, beautiful mature gardens, a detached double garage with workshop and excellent scope for further extension, subject to planning permission. Offered with no onward chain, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a distinctive village home in an exceptional setting.

STEP INSIDE

Approached through gates, a sweeping driveway leads into the grounds and immediately creates a sense of arrival. Set well back from the road and surrounded by established gardens, the house enjoys an enviable degree of privacy whilst remaining conveniently positioned within the village. Original Crittall windows and a wealth of retained character details reflect the property's heritage and give the home a timeless appeal.

The accommodation begins with a welcoming entrance hall measuring 12'2" x 9'6" (3.7m x 2.9m), providing access to the principal reception rooms and staircase to the first floor. To the front of the property, the sitting room is an impressive dual-aspect reception space measuring 13'0" x 17'4" (4.0m x 5.3m). Centred around an attractive open fireplace, this is a wonderfully comfortable room for both everyday living and entertaining, with doors opening directly into the conservatory.

The conservatory measures 11'8" x 16'5" (3.5m x 5.0m) and enjoys delightful views across the surrounding gardens. Flooded with natural light throughout the day, it provides a peaceful setting in which to relax whilst appreciating the mature planting and tranquil atmosphere of the grounds.

Positioned adjacent to the hall, the dining room measures 12'2" x 11'8" (3.7m x 3.5m) and offers an ideal space for formal dining and family gatherings. The kitchen/breakfast room, measuring 10'0" x 8'0" (3.0m x 2.4m), retains a traditional feel and benefits from a practical pantry cupboard, providing additional storage and enhancing the cottage's character.

Beyond the kitchen is a useful utility room measuring 5'9" x 12'0" (1.7m x 3.7m), together with a cloakroom/WC. To the far side of the ground floor is a versatile study measuring 8'11" x 15'6" (2.7m x 4.7m). With a bright dual-aspect outlook, this room lends itself perfectly to home working, hobbies or a further reception room depending upon individual requirements.

The first-floor accommodation is arranged around a generous landing and comprises four well-proportioned bedrooms.
