

Old Methodist Chapel , Penrith, CA10 1QW

Guide price £250,000

Nestled in the quaint village of Culgaith in the Eden Valley. This charming Grade II listed chapel has been thoughtfully transformed in 2019, into a unique residence that seamlessly blends historic charm with modern comfort. The open-plan living and kitchen area invite warmth and togetherness, while the original architectural details, from soaring arched windows to exposed beams, tell stories of times gone by. With two cozy bedrooms, this chapel-turned-home offers a peaceful retreat, inviting you to create your own tales within its historic walls. A harmonious marriage of old-world character and contemporary living, this residence in Culgaith is a true testament to the art of preservation and adaptation.
