Vendor's Comments

"We absolutely love living at The Furlong. Our street is peaceful, with nice neighbours on all sides. Our colourful and natural garden is a highlight, and we regularly host friends and families for entertainment and play. So much of our life is within walking distance with our child's primary school, and sports clubs just a short stroll way. Our shopping routine is a breeze with big Tesco just a stone's throw away and we regularly take the short trip to Henleaze road for the library, the independent books store and the garden centre. Our family is growing and we have older parents, so we are looking to upsize close by. We have so many happy family memories and will be really miss the delightful location of The Furlong."
