Overall Description

This is an attractive and beautifully presented end-of-terraced Victorian cottage in a lovely position, right at the heart of Harlow Town Park, over which it enjoys pleasant views. The property has plenty of period character and charm and is in excellent decorative order throughout. There are two good-sized double bedrooms and a large luxury bathroom on the top two floors, with the top bedroom having French doors opening out to a Juliet balcony overlooking the garden. On the ground floor is an entrance porch, sitting room with woodburning stove, dining room, kitchen with stable door to the garden, utility and downstairs shower room. The pretty and good-sized back gardens are a real feature of this property and there is off-street parking on the drive to the front and a gate for side access. If you are looking for something with modern convenience that also has a little bit of character, in a sought-after location that is close to local amenities, then viewing is highly recommended.

Location

This property sits in arguably the best location in central Harlow, one of a row of Victorian cottages in the middle of Harlow Town Park, over which it enjoys lovely views to the front, so very well-positioned for everything that the town has to offer, but with green open-spaces to enjoy right on your doorstep. Harlow Town Park is a 160 acre award-winning Grade II Listed public space, renowned for its wide ranging attractions including water garden, adventure playground, pet's corner farm, paddling pool, skate park and scenic gardens. The Greyhound pub/restaurant is just a short stroll up the road and Harlow Town railway station is also just a short walk away, with its regular fast trains to London Liverpool Street. Harlow town centre is also easily reached on foot and has a very good range of shops, supermarkets and other amenities including the Princess Alexandra Hospital, while the Old Town and surrounding villages have a selection of good pubs and local restaurants. Harlow is surrounded by open countryside making the property perfect for keen walkers or cyclists, yet is also easily accessible by road with the M11 heading south to London and the M25 and the A414 providing easy access to the A10 and beyond.
