Tucked away in a cul-de-sac in Ivybridge, this well-presented three-bedroom end-of-terrace home offers a great amount of space, a private garden, garage and excellent parking.

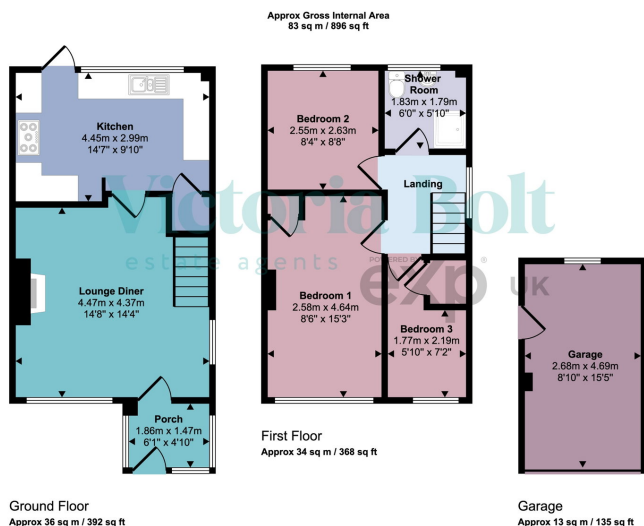

The property has a useful entrance porch leading to a bright, comfortable living room. To the rear is a spacious kitchen/diner with a good range of cupboards and worktop space, plus plenty of room for a dining table.

Upstairs are three bedrooms, including two good-sized doubles and a third bedroom ideal as a child's room or home office, along with a family shower room.

Outside is a private, low-maintenance rear garden, a garage with parking in front and an additional parking space. The fence across the driveway could also be removed to create further off-road parking.
