The Property

A tastefully refurbished and extended three-bedroom terraced cottage, arranged over three floors and finished to a high standard.

The ground floor features a spacious open-plan sitting and dining area with log burner, leading into a newly fitted kitchen with roof lantern. On the first floor is a good-sized second bedroom and a family bathroom with shower over the bath. The top floor includes a generous master bedroom with en-suite shower room and far reaching views over the town rooftops and abbey, along with a third double bedroom featuring a large dormer window to the front.

Outside, a levelled and paved courtyard garden with slatted fencing leads via a pathway to a further generous lawned garden, complete with paved seating area, wooden shed, and gated rear access providing a shortcut into the town.

The property offers a bright, spacious layout with modern finishes and period charm throughout.

Two parking spaces, in the car park opposite, are currently rented at £70 per space per month and can be transferred to the new owner.

Malmesbury

Reported to be England's oldest borough, dating from around 880AD, Malmesbury is a vibrant market town. Home to a stunning 12th century Abbey, a 15th century Market Cross and a charming High Street with unique, independent shops. There are lovely walks along the beautiful River Avon, fabulous cafes, restaurants, pubs and the oldest Hotel in England. It has a Waitrose supermarket, a regular farmers' market, a library, museum, leisure centre with pool, two primary schools and a 'High Performing Academy' secondary school. It is also home to the UK headquarters of Dyson. Nearby are the popular attractions of Westonbirt Arboretum and the Cotswold Water Park. The City of Bath is 23 miles to the south-west and J17 of the M4, 5 miles south, provides access to the area's major employment centres and there are trains to Paddington in just over an hour from Chippenham and Kemble. The nearest airport is at Bristol.

Directions to SN16 0BD
