Approached via a gated entrance, steps rise to this attractive red brick Edwardian family home, which occupies an elevated position and offers spacious and versatile accommodation arranged over two floors.

The entrance porch opens into a generous open-plan sitting room, featuring an impressive box bay window with elevated views, a marble fireplace and fitted book shelving and storage to either side. To the rear of the property is the well-appointed kitchen, fitted with a range of storage units and an integrated dishwasher, together with space for additional appliances and a breakfast table and chairs. A window and glazed door provide access to the conservatory, from which steps lead onto a paved terrace and onwards to the tiered rear garden.

Also positioned to the rear of the property and adjoining the kitchen is a further reception room, which benefits from direct access to the conservatory, providing excellent flexibility for family living, entertaining or home working.

Stairs rise to the first-floor landing, where there are two well-proportioned double bedrooms. The principal bedroom is positioned to the front of the property and enjoys an elevated aspect and views, whilst the second bedroom overlooks the rear garden.

Completing the accommodation is a spacious family bathroom, fitted with a bath and shower over, together with a useful cupboard housing the combination boiler.

The property also benefits from an extensive loft space, offering excellent potential to create additional accommodation, subject to the necessary consents. Similar loft conversions have been carried out at neighbouring properties, highlighting the potential available.
