What the owner says:

"A quiet cul-de-sac with a genuine community feel and lovely neighbours, this has been a great Brighton home. Inside, the rooms are well-proportioned with clever storage throughout- including generous under-living room storage and purpose-built wardrobes in the bedrooms. The garden is a real sun trap, being sheltered by the church makes it perfect for quiet afternoons in the sun. We just loved the location, with the beach, the Laines and town centre all within easy reach, and the cafés and eateries of London Road on the doorstep. The train station and A23 are both nearby too- so it's convenient for commuting or getting out of the city for the day. We hope the next owners love it as much as we have."

Main area: Approx. 71.2 sq. metres (766.5 sq. feet)
Plus storage, approx. 5.3 sq. metres (57.1 sq. feet)
