Description

Tucked away along a quiet village lane, this attractive four-bedroom semi-detached home enjoys a wonderful setting surrounded by generous gardens, while remaining conveniently placed for Castle Cary, Glastonbury, Somerton and the surrounding Somerset countryside.

A charming stone pathway winds through the attractive front garden to the property's characterful stone and rendered elevations beneath a natural slate roof. The property combines character features with practical family living, offering spacious, light-filled accommodation and a thoughtfully designed layout. Outside, the home is complemented by mature gardens extending to approximately 0.2 acres, ample driveway parking, a double garage and a versatile garden studio.

Stepping inside, the welcoming entrance hall provides access to the principal reception rooms. The dual-aspect sitting room is an inviting space, flooded with natural light and featuring bi-fold doors opening directly onto the rear garden. A Blue Lias stone fireplace, complete with a wood-burning stove, creates an attractive focal point, while cleverly designed bespoke shelving conceals a hidden doorway leading to a private study—perfect for home working or a quiet retreat.

Positioned opposite, the impressive kitchen/dining room forms the heart of the home. Fitted with a range of quality hardwood cabinetry topped with oak work surfaces, it incorporates integrated appliances including a slimline dishwasher, washing machine and electric oven with induction hob. Limestone flooring and a Charnwood wood-burning stove, set within a traditional inglenook fireplace, add warmth and character, while a generous central island provides additional preparation space and storage. There is ample room for a family dining table overlooking the garden, and a door leads through to the practical side porch, where there is space for coats and boots alongside the oil-fired boiler, with direct access to both the driveway and rear garden.

The first floor offers four individually styled bedrooms, all enjoying pleasant outlooks and timber flooring. The guest bedroom benefits from its own beautifully finished en-suite shower room, complete with tiled walls, timber panelling and a characterful sliding barn door. The remaining bedrooms are served by a well-appointed family bathroom fitted with a bath and shower over, wash hand basin and WC.
