Here's our TOP TEN reasons to love 4 Norwood Farm Cottages:

- 1. Location really matters - tucked away in the corner of this select residential development of a former farmstead, in the quiet rural village of High Casterton, Casterton itself has a petrol filling station and garage with a small shop for basic provisions along with The Pheasant, a popular country pub. - 3. Come on in to the entrance vestibule with decorative tiled floor. A glazed door leads into a light and sociable dining kitchen with limestone floor, window seat, base and wall units, integral appliances including fridge/freezer, dishwasher, hob, electric oven and grill. An understairs cupboard provides useful storage. There is also a practical utility/laundry room with external access and cloakroom off.
- 4. A dual aspect sitting room has a cast iron multi-fuel stove on a flag hearth and window seats to the east elevation - together with the dining kitchen it's a great room for entertaining.
- 5. Sweet dreams - from the kitchen, a full return staircase with feature leaded and stained circular window leads to the landing off which are three double bedrooms; bedroom 1 was formerly two rooms so is a lovely generous size and has a fitted wardrobe, bedroom 2 is also a good-sized double with bedroom 3 having built-in wardrobes.
- 6. Flagged courtyard-style east facing garden, with bin store and pedestrian gate giving handy access to the lane. There's plenty of space for a table and chairs, pots and planters and is ideal for those seeking a low maintenance outdoor space.
