The gardens are a particular highlight, with beautifully mature planting creating a verdant backdrop and a series of lawned and planted areas that provide an idyllic outdoor setting. To the rear, the garden is exceptionally well established, with mature trees, shrubs and colourful planting creating a wonderfully private and secluded environment. Meandering pathways and carefully planted borders give the garden a relaxed, almost country-garden feel, making it a delightful space in which to sit, entertain or simply enjoy the surroundings.

The property also benefits from a substantial garage, accessed from the rear, providing excellent secure storage and parking potential and adding another valuable dimension to this already impressive home.

Inside, the ground floor immediately delivers on space, with an impressive reception room providing a wonderful setting for both formal entertaining and relaxed family gatherings. A separate kitchen is complemented by a generous dining room, creating an excellent arrangement for hosting family and friends, while a further substantial lounge offers an additional reception space in which to relax and unwind.

Each space can be tailored to suit the lifestyle of the new owners, whether that means creating formal entertaining areas, a dedicated family room, a quieter sitting room or a combination of both. The generous proportions throughout are a defining characteristic of the property and create a feeling of space and grandeur rarely found in more conventional family homes.

The first floor continues the impressive accommodation, providing three well-proportioned bedrooms. Each offers considerable flexibility, with ample space for family members, guests or those requiring dedicated work-from-home accommodation. The scale of the rooms allows the property to adapt effortlessly to changing family requirements, while the separation between the floors provides an excellent sense of privacy.

The second floor is home to a truly impressive bedroom, with exceptional proportions that provide an opportunity to create a magnificent private retreat. With space on this scale, the room could comfortably accommodate a range of furnishings and uses, creating the potential for a particularly impressive principal bedroom, guest suite or additional private living space.

The lower ground floor adds yet another layer of versatility to the accommodation. Rather than simply offering additional rooms, this level provides genuine scope for the new owners to tailor the property around their individual requirements, whether that be additional living accommodation, a home office, hobby space, guest accommodation or somewhere for older children to have their own sense of independence.

Externally, the gardens are undoubtedly one of the property's most distinctive features. The rear garden is a mature and beautifully planted haven, with established trees, colourful borders and a wonderful sense of seclusion. The level of planting gives the garden an established character and creates a peaceful setting that feels surprisingly private for such a central location. The front garden provides further greenery and kerb appeal, while the substantial garage adds useful practicality without detracting from the attractive surroundings.
