This room is part of a larger 15-bedroom House in Multiple Occupation (HMO), making it ideal for individuals who appreciate a communal living environment. Residents will benefit from access to three fully equipped kitchens, allowing for ample cooking space and flexibility. The communal living room serves as a welcoming area for socialising and relaxation, fostering a sense of community among residents.

This property is perfectly situated to take advantage of the local amenities and the beautiful coastline that Southend-On-Sea has to offer. A great option for someone looking for affordable, convenient and sociable accommodation in a well-located shared home.
