ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Beautiful DETACHED FAMILY HOME offering spacious and versatile accommodation, quality finishes and excellent entertaining space, with an interesting history as a former village post office many years ago.

Being well maintained and improved by the current owners to create a stylish home suited to modern family living. The ground floor comprises a formal lounge and an impressive breakfast and dining kitchen, well fitted and complete with underfloor heating, forming a superb hub for everyday living and modern life. A rear lobby with WC provides convenient access to the outside space, while a separate dining room offers flexibility as a snug, home office or playroom.

Upstairs are three generously sized bedrooms, along with a separate shower room and separate bathroom, both finished to a high standard.

Externally, the outdoor space sits on a corner plot position, to the front the property is divided into two distinct areas - a garden section and a block-set cottage style garden with single sliding electric gate, creating a private setting ideal for al fresco dining. A single L shaped garage provides excellent storage or potential for alternative uses such as a gym or workshop.
