Homewood, Woodlands

Combe Martin, EX34 0AT

A Handsome Victorian Residence with Coastal Charm and Countryside Views

Set just moments from the golden sands of Combe Martin beach, this impressive Victorian semi-detached home blends timeless architecture, expansive accommodation, and captivating rural views. With classic Victoria club clay tiles and a remarkable ornate lanai, Homewood's striking external appearance is a thing of beauty.

Internally, the property boasts six generously sized bedrooms, all bright, airy, and flooded with natural light, alongside four elegant reception rooms, one of which could easily be repurposed as a seventh bedroom, home office, or creative studio.

Stepping through the entrance, you're welcomed into a truly grand hallway where a sweeping staircase immediately impresses. Delightful patterned Victorian floor tiles, stained glass windows, and elegant double doors all speak to the home's character and craftsmanship. High ceilings, ornate mouldings, and original features continue throughout, preserving the property's distinguished heritage.

The kitchen is a substantial, well-appointed space, ideal for family life and entertaining, with scope to personalise to suit modern tastes.

There are four bathrooms in total, including an en suite bedroom with its own private entrance—perfectly suited for Airbnb hosting or independent guest accommodation.

Outside, the property offers superb amenity: a detached double garage with additional overhead storage, ample off-road parking, and attractively landscaped gardens. The front garden is laid to lawn with a charming patio seating area, while a rear courtyard provides a peaceful, enclosed space for outdoor dining and relaxation.

With its elevated position affording stunning countryside views, easy access to the beach, and a blend of Victorian elegance and modern flexibility, this exceptional home is ideal for families, multi-generational living, or anyone seeking a slice of coastal tranquillity in North Devon.
