The Property

Set in approximately 0.9 acres on the edge of the desirable village of Ashford Bowdler, just 2 miles from the ever-popular market town of Ludlow, Barn House is a substantial detached former barn offering exceptional versatility, outstanding character and beautifully presented accommodation throughout.

Originally forming part of nearby Old Yew Tree Farm and dating back to the 1700s, the property was sympathetically converted in 1975 by the son of the former farm owners, for his disabled mother. Since purchasing the home in 2007, the current owners have lovingly maintained and vastly enhanced the property, creating a warm and welcoming family home perfectly suited to modern multi-generational living.

Arranged in an attractive U-shaped configuration, Barn House provides extensive and flexible accommodation ideal for two families coming together, independent living for elderly relatives, or purchasers seeking annexe potential. The layout allows the property to operate effortlessly as one impressive residence, whilst also offering the ability to be easily separated into two independent dwellings if required. The left wing benefits from its own separate access, courtyard area, kitchen, reception room, bathroom, bedroom and independent heating system, adding a further layer of practicality and privacy.

Internally, the home is rich in period charm, with exposed timbers and brickwork, vaulted ceilings and original barn features throughout. Spacious reception rooms provide Importantly, the property includes downstairs bedrooms and bathroom facilities, making the home particularly well suited for elderly relatives or accessible family living. The kitchen diner within the right wing forms the heart of the home and is both practical and characterful, featuring granite and solid wood worktops, a range of cupboards and a useful larder alongside ample dining space for family gatherings and entertaining. The kitchen diner provides access into the impressive master suite, signature living room and light-filled sunroom.

Outside, the south-west facing gardens are an exceptional feature of the property and have been lovingly designed and maintained to create a private and highly attractive outdoor setting. The extensive grounds wrap around the home and incorporate beautifully manicured lawns, established borders, mature trees and an abundance of seasonal planting, creating colour and interest throughout the year. A series of winding pathways lead through the gardens to a variety of seating and entertaining areas, including two charming pergolas and a summerhouse perfectly positioned to enjoy the surroundings.

The grounds offer a wonderful balance of
