Tucked away on the fringe of Framfield village is this most impressive, detached three bedroom bungalow that fuses rustic charm with contemporary elegance, all whilst found in a highly private garden plot of circa 0.5 acre

The property has been the subject of a meticulous programme of extension and refurbishment, resulting in a stylish home that is highly practical, full of character and flooded with natural light.

Original features, including exposed brickwork with open fireplace, are enhanced with carefully considered additions including luxurious bathroom suite with Heritage sanitary ware, solid oak exposed floor timbers with parquet batton flooring laid to the Kitchen, all add to the ambience of this home that promotes tranquillity and serenity. The impressive Sitting Room, with its feature fireplace and oak flooring, provides a warm and welcoming hub to the property, with casement doors leading to the broad south facing sun deck, finished in Cumaru hardwood decking.

The highly adaptable layout (see floor plan) comprises beautifully appointed bedrooms (two are south facing) and bathroom finished to a high standard, including a sumptuous principle bedroom. Throughout, the interiors have been tastefully finished in neutral, calming tones, highlighting the aspect and natural light.

The existing accommodation can be extended by way of an existing planning consent, this would provide a two storey extension, permission granted in 2015, the footings of which are established and in place, adjacent to the southerly elevation of the principle bedroom. Plans and further detail are available via <https://www.wealden.gov.uk/planning-services-online>

Outside, the property continues to impress. Landscaped lawned garden to the east and southern boundary incorporate a 50 sq metre concrete base with amenities including water, electricity, sewage and fibre optic cable in place, ideal for a garden pavilion/home office. offering both lawned areas and raised terraces designed for relaxation and entertaining. The raised aspect over the adjoining paddocks is a joy to take in and behold. The garden's seclusion belies the property's central location within the village, making it an exceptional blend of convenience and privacy.

The attached double garage is the definition of a motoring enthusiasts utopia, completed in 2021 of timber framed construction with concrete base, all under a bitumen felt roof with electric light, power and twin remote control electrically operated rolling security doors. Approached by a sweeping shingle driveway that affords considerable off road parking that is partly secluded.

Location:- Framfield is situated in the inland hills of East Sussex, approximately two miles east of Uckfield. The parish area also includes nearby Blackboys and Palehouse Common. The village is home to the ancient Church of St. Thomas à Becket. A wooden church existed on the site in Saxon times, with the current stone structure dating back to the 13th century. Widely recognised for its community focus with a local C of E primary school, a parish council, and the popular "Hare & Hounds" public house. The surrounding area is known for its beautiful, peaceful countryside, abundant wildlife, making it a haven for nature lovers. The Weald Way, an ancient route across Sussex, passes nearby, and walking routes like the "Framfield Circular" are popular.

Local Authority: Wealden District Council - Tax band F

Services: Mains water, electricity and drainage are appointed to the property. Oil fired central heating via a Worcester/Bosch 'Greenstar Danesmou' 12/18 external oil fired boiler.
