

Park Road, KT2

£400,000

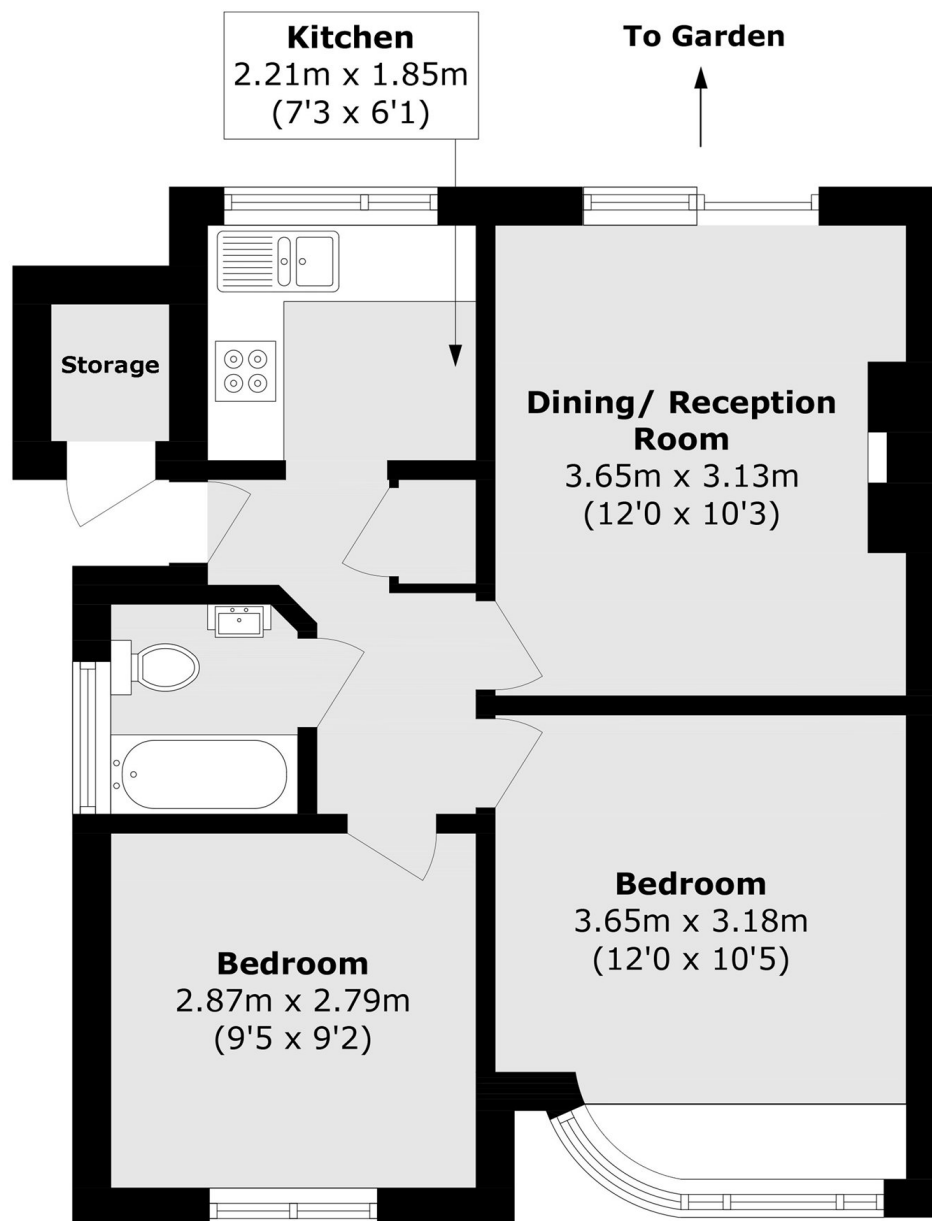

A bright, two double bedroom ground floor maisonette, with its own private entrance and a private rear garden accessed via attractive double doors from the living room. The property further benefits from outside storage, a private garage, low outgoing, a long lease and no onward chain. This is a great purchase for a first time buyer, as well as an investor looking for a strong addition to their portfolio.

The maisonette is located in a quiet residential location on Park Road in North Kingston, less than a mile from Ham Parade and the banks of the river Thames. With the extensive open space of Richmond Park and an excellent choice of schools for all ages less than half a mile away, this is a perfect and tranquil setting to live and enjoy.
